2018 Annual Meeting Travel Grant Winners

Religion and the Arts Travel Grant

The AAR is pleased to announce that Marcus Evans of McMaster University is the winner of the Religion and the Arts Travel Grant. This grant is designed for a graduate student studying religion and the arts who is without institutional support to attend the AAR Annual Meeting. The jury evaluated each application based on need, active record of membership and involvement in AAR activities, and promising contributions to religion and the arts at this year's Annual Meeting.
